Avoid Costly Hiring Mistakes

The two IDs employees most often provide to prove identity and work eligibility are the driver's license and Social Security card. These are also two of the most counterfeited IDs.

Spot Fake IDs: I-9

Employer Guide protects your company from unknowingly hiring illegal aliens who have fake IDs.

Take the Guesswork Out

Without the Spot Fake IDs Guide hiring personnel are essentially operating blind when checking the documents new employees must provide for the I-9 process.

With the Spot Fake IDs Guide they can see the security features built into documents.

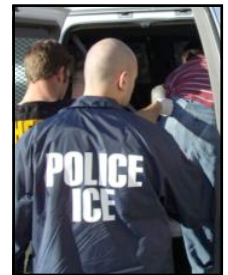

Imagine actually knowing how to tell the difference between real and fake Social Security cards, driver's licenses, Permanent Resident cards and more.

Avoid Fines and Risks!

The government's I-9 requirement makes employers responsible for keeping illegal immigrants from holding jobs in the United States.

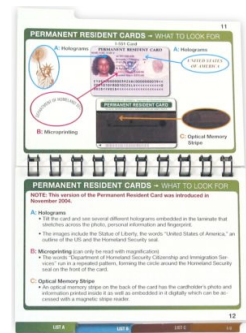

Workplace audits and raids have become commonplace as the feds step up I-9 enforcement.

Hiring illegal workers has led to big fines and jail time for managers and executives. Even unknowingly having illegal workers on staff can lead to fines, and negative media attention. One Texas restaurant found that out when reporters came knocking. An employee had been arrested for kidnapping and rape. It turned out he was an illegal alien who provided fake ID for the I-9.
